

Salmac's Langoustine Success

Salmac has grown to become a leading supplier of superior quality Scottish langoustine.

Working closely with one-day shellfish boats on Scotland's coasts enables Salmac to guarantee continuity of supply and strong market presence for fishermen and producers alike.

Salmac is proud to offer "Scottish Select"™ fresh and frozen Scottish langoustine sourced exclusively from vessels accredited under the "Responsible Fishing Scheme", demonstrating our dedication to traceability and responsible sourcing of seafood.

With offices in Aberdeen and Boulogne, our multi-lingual sales team looks after a diverse customer base, covering countries such as France, Belgium, Spain and Italy. Supply both to the UK and international markets is made possible by highly efficient distribution networks, which benefit every level of the supply chain, from fisherman to customer.
